As the world transforms into a winter wonderland, poet Valerie Nifora invites us on a poetic journey through the season's enchanting beauty and chilly delights. Her collection of haikus, aptly titled Winter Love, captures the ethereal essence of winter, painting vivid images of snow-laden landscapes, cozy moments by the fire, and nature's wonders revealed in the cold embrace of the season.

Nifora's haikus are like delicate snowflakes, each one unique and intricate, capturing a fleeting moment or observation. Through her evocative verses, we experience the tranquility of a snow-covered forest, the playful dance of snowflakes in the wind, and the warmth of a loved one's presence amidst the winter's chill.

In the haiku below, Nifora captures the serene beauty of a winter forest, where the silence is broken only by the soft crunch of snow beneath our feet:

Snow-laden branches Silence, only broken by The crunch of our steps

Another haiku paints a vivid picture of snowflakes, their intricate designs twirling in the wind like tiny dancers:

Snowflakes gently fall Twirling in the winter wind Nature's ballet dance

While winter often brings with it a sense of solitude and introspection, Nifora also finds warmth and comfort in the season. In one haiku, she describes the cozy embrace of a loved one, their presence a beacon of light against the winter's cold:

```
Warm by the fireplace Loved one's presence, a beacon Against winter's ch

Winter Love is a testament to Nifora's keen observation and appreciation of the season's unique beauty. Her haikus offer a fresh perspective on winter, inviting us to slow down and savor the moments that make the season so special. Through her evocative verses, we discover the magic that lies hidden in the cold embrace of winter.
